Noida Traffic Advisory: DND flyway to remain diverted from THIS date - Check reason, timing

Noida Traffic Police has announced night-time diversions on the DND Flyway from February 22 to March 18 due to resurfacing work. Commuters travelling towards Delhi are advised to use alternate routes.

Highlights:

Night repair work between 11 PM and 6 AM

Traffic from Noida to Delhi via DND to be diverted

Commuters advised to use Chilla route and plan travel in advance

The Police Commissionerate Gautam Buddh Nagar has issued a traffic advisory regarding temporary diversions on the DND Flyway due to upcoming repair work.

According to the Traffic Police, Noida Toll Bridge Company Limited will undertake repair and resurfacing work on the DND Flyway carriageway from February twenty-two, twenty twenty-six, to March eighteen, twenty twenty-six. The work will be carried out during non-peak hours, between eleven PM and six AM. During this period, traffic moving from Noida towards Delhi via the DND Flyway will be diverted.

As per the advisory:

Vehicles approaching the DND from the Mahamaya Flyover side will be redirected to reach their destination through Chilla via Dalit Prerna Sthal.

Vehicles coming from Rajnigandha and Sector sixteen towards the DND toll and heading to Delhi will have to take a U-turn at the DND toll plaza and proceed towards Chilla to reach their destination.

The Traffic Police has urged commuters to plan their journeys in advance and opt for alternative routes to avoid inconvenience during the night-time repair work.
