TRIAL AND HOPEFULLY NO ERROR

NHAI has opened the 9km stretch of the Delhi-Mumbai Expressway between DND Flyway and Jaitpur on a trial basis, offering relief to commuters travelling between Ashram, Kalindi Kunj and Faridabad. Officials say 50km of the 59-km Delhi link from the DND Flyway to the Delhi-Mumbai Expressway's junction with KMP Expressway had been opened in phases. With the DND-Jaitpur stretch becoming operational, Delhi is now fully connected to the country's longest access-controlled expressway. Officials say trial runs are conducted only after construction and safety audits are complete. During this period, commuters are not charged toll. The exercise allows NHAI to identify and rectify any deficiencies before the stretch is formally commissioned
